

GEORGE R. DAVIS COMMUNITY FUND IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE
NORTHERN NEW YORK COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
2012 APPLICATION

Introduction: The Honorable George R. Davis passed away in February 2010 after living almost his entire life in Lowville, NY. Judge Davis, as he was known, served for 20 years as Lewis County Judge from 1962 to 1983. George was active in civic affairs throughout his lifetime with a particular interest in local history including the history of Lowville Academy where his father served as supervising principal for over 35 years. George's devotion to this community was extraordinary. One of George Davis' lasting legacies is this unique community fund.

An excerpt from the Watertown Daily Times obituary of February 9, 2010 identifies the deep love George Davis had for his community and its citizens.

“George Davis is a graduate of Lowville Academy (1935), Deerfield Academy (1936), Middlebury College (1940) and Syracuse Law School (1948). He enlisted in the Army and served in the Pacific Theatre during World War II attaining the rank of Captain. He served as Lewis County District Attorney after his return to Lowville and was eventually elected County Judge in 1962.

He had a life-long love for Lowville and its history. Following his retirement from the bench, he continued to pursue his interest in local history. He was Town Historian for 18 years. He served on the Board of the Lewis County Historical Society for many years and later as President. He wrote numerous articles about local history over the years. He served on the Lowville Rural Cemetery Board and worked for many summers restoring old cemeteries and gravestones. He was active in the Lowville Academy Alumni and Friends Association and a member of the Association for the Protection of the Adirondacks. Mr. Davis became the Academy's historian and served in 2008 as honorary chairperson of the district's 200th anniversary.

In his final five years at home, he studied for and passed his Amateur Radio License joining the Black River Amateur Radio Club. During this time, he was the first recipient of the Lewis County Peace Prize and the last surviving member of the Lowville Band.

He was a member of the Lowville American Legion Post #162, Lowville Elks Lodge #1605, V.F.W. Lewis County Memorial Post #6912 and the Lowville Masonic Temple #134. He never missed marching and later riding in the Memorial Day Parade. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church where he was ordained an Elder in 1964 and served as a Trustee.”

The Davis Community Fund was established to benefit the citizens of the Village and Town of Lowville. In the years ahead, this fund will help bring much needed resources to the community. The selection committee invites your application for the inaugural 2012 awards.
