Watertown High School's Youth Philanthropy Council Awards $10,000 in Grants

The spring cohort for Watertown High School's Youth Philanthropy Council had seven grant recommendations awarding up to $10,000 approved by the Northern New York Community Foundation Board of Directors on Tuesday. The recipients are organizations providing services in Jefferson, Lewis and St. Lawrence counties. This year, the school district had two Youth Philanthropy Councils award nearly $20,000 in grants.

"We have been continually impressed by both the way the Youth Philanthropy Councils have developed, as well as the types of projects they've chosen to support. What doesn't necessarily come through in the final grant awards is the personal leadership growth that occurs in these young adults. This will help serve our communities and the world well in the years to come," said Rande S. Richardson, Community Foundation executive director.

Watertown Youth Philanthropy Council grants approved were:

- Children's Home of Jefferson County - $2,500 to support the organization's SoZo Teen Center, which is a program designed to help students focus on academics and participate in a variety of after-school activities.
- Volunteer Transportation Center - $2,000 to assist with mileage reimbursement for volunteers using personal vehicles to transport clients to various destinations.
- Cornell Cooperative Extension & 4-H Camp Wabasso - $1,800 to purchase two stand-up paddleboards to utilized for new summer water programming for all ages.
- Credo Community Center - $1,300 to provide additional support for the organization's "Healthy Recovery Connection" initiative.
- Gouverneur Breast Cancer Fund - $1,000 to assist with funding for supplies included in the organization's informational bags provided to clients.
- Watertown Evening Rotary - $900 as part of an initiative to purchase books for students in kindergarten through fourth grade within the Watertown City School District.
- Disabled Persons Action Organization - $500 to help with upgrades at the organization's Pamela Street location.
