The 2004 Annual Report was created to remind us all of the thousands of students whose lives have been enriched by scholarships from the Foundation. The scholarship program began with small loans to returning soldiers after World War II. From those small loans, a formal scholarship program emerged in the 1980s.

Since 1980 over 6.1 million dollars have been awarded to students from Jefferson and Lewis Counties. Scholarships are awarded based on merit: Regent's scores, SAT scores, class rank, and a personal essay are all considered. However, the amount of the scholarship is based solely on need.

In addition to the high school scholarship program, the Foundation initiated a program for non-traditional students (see the article on page 14) which has helped people who live and work in the North Country make significant and meaningful changes in their lives.

As you look through this report we hope you will pause for a few moments to read through the pages where scholarship recipients are listed. There can be no question that investments in people really do make a difference.

In 1995, Marc wrote in a letter to the Northern NY Community Foundation:

“It may seem odd that the son of two high school teachers would want to go into the field of agriculture, but ever since I can remember I’ve wanted to be a dairy farmer. As soon as I was big enough I began helping on friend’s or family member’s farms. I worked all through high school, and in college I continued to work on weekends and during the summers.

My family places a great deal of value on education, and I knew from experience that you needed to be progressive to succeed in today’s dairy industry. After receiving a degree from SUNY at Cobleskill I was awarded a Community Foundation scholarship and was able to go on to Cornell University where I earned a Bachelor’s degree in Animal Science.

I want to thank the Foundation for its support during my four years of college. Their confidence in me gave me a great deal of encouragement. I love dairy farming and I love northern New York; I hope to have a significant effect on both in the future.

Although her finances were very limited, she was able to transfer to Clarkson where she received a BS degree in finance. After graduation she joined the financial management training program at United Technologies. Twelve years ago she found a job with Purcell Construction Company and came back to Watertown so that she could care for her parents. "Without the Foundation and the Financial Aid Director at Clarkson I could never have even dreamed of going to college, much less finishing.... Together they made all the difference."

CARL H. FRINK
REINMAN

According to his daughter Grace Louise Reinman, Carl Frink was a self-made man who received little formal education. He educated himself by being alert to the world around him and by always reading. He commented once that he "wished he had learned geometry because it would have been easier than doing everything the long way." A man of vision and ability, he created a company which gained an international reputation for manufacturing snow removal equipment.

Mrs. Reinman established a scholarship at the Foundation in her father's memory. The Carl H. Frink Scholarship is awarded to graduates of Thousand Islands Central School who have demonstrated her father's interests and will pursue an education in mechanical or technical fields.

FRIENDS OF THE FOUNDATION

The Foundation offers donors a variety of ways to achieve charitable objectives. Friends of the Foundation have made gifts during their lifetimes or through their estates.

Lifetime gifts are outright or in exchange for life income. They may be for unrestricted use or to establish in perpetuity a scholarship or fund for a particular organization or area of interest. Some funds permit the donor to make suggestions on the fund's use. Whether through an outright bequest or the establishment of a charitable remainder trust, many have supported the Foundation through their estates.

‘We’re making investments in people’

NNY Community Foundation’s help makes all the difference for nontraditional college students

By John Golden
Times Staff Writer

In high school and college in the ‘60s and ‘70s, Port Leyden resident Robert J. Marsh was not the kind of student to run for elective office. At 53, the rejuvenated student will graduate this month as president of his class at St. Elizabeth College of Nursing in Utica.

In high school in the ‘80s, Clayton resident Meredith R. Veith worked for grades just “good enough to stay on the cheering squad,” she said. Next Sunday, the 34-year old divorced mother will be awarded a degree from Syracuse University. She plans to “hang up the shears” as a hairstylist in Watertown for a new career as a certified public accountant.

Redwood resident Steven M. Hunter was among the thousand and more workers in the last decade who lost their jobs as paper mills closed in Northern New York. About to graduate from St. Lawrence University, the 40-year-old father is grateful for the chance to move from the mill’s daily grind to the classroom and playing field as a teacher and coach.

They are among the 40 nontraditional students from Jefferson and Lewis counties who are helped in reaching their educational goals by Northern New York Community Foundation scholarships. In the 2005-06 academic year, about $100,000 of the Watertown agency’s $330,000 in scholarship awards will go to nontraditional students, said foundation Executive Director Alex C. Velto. Based on their financial need, full-time students can receive up to $6,000 per year from the foundation, he said.

The foundation’s roster of nontraditional students includes recent high school graduates going on to technical training schools. Still more are older persons returning to school. “Many of them are supporting families either as single parents or with a spouse or partner,” said Mr. Velto. “Some of them have been laid off of their jobs.”

Unlike many younger scholarship students, “These are folks who are going to stay in the community” after graduation, he said. “If we can help them with a better education to get a better job, not only are they going to be better off, but we as a community are going to be better off because of this program.”

“We’re making investments in people,” he said.

SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS A SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT'S VIEWPOINT

Lowville Academy and Central School and the Foundation have been working together for the last year to make significant changes in the school's scholarship program. The following article was written by Ken McAuliffe who serves as the Superintendent of Schools as well as a member of the Community Foundation Board of Directors.

Lowville Academy and Central School District in Lewis County has been a long standing beneficiary of the Northern New York Community Foundation's Scholarship Program. The district's own tradition of awarding significant scholarships at commencement dates back to the late 1800s. Recently, the district's connection to the Foundation has been further strengthened with scholarships which were established at the Foundation in memory of Lowville graduates.

Community support for college scholarships led to significant growth in the district's Trust and Agency Scholarship Fund. During the 2004-05 school years the Lowville Academy Board of Education began working with the Foundation to study ways that the district could improve its return on investment and better distribute scholarships to college bound seniors. After a year of research and discussion the Board of Education unanimously approved the transfer of the college scholarship fund to the Foundation thereby reaffirming their support and generosity toward future graduates.

The Foundation's strong support for both Lowville Academy and North Country students was a critical factor in the district's decision to transfer funds to the Foundation. The Board of Education and the school committee are grateful that the Foundation was willing to assist us in providing a more affordable college education for our graduates.

CATHERINE C.
JOHNSON

JOHN B. AND CATHERINE

John and Catherine Johnson constantly sought to learn something new and then describe the discovery to others. After all, information gathering and story telling was their profession – journalism. Each of them respected education, knowing that higher education provided the intellectual wherewithal to prosper.

College education was not an option in John and Catherine Johnson’s world – it was a requirement. However, education did not stop with degrees. Whether it was absorbing the lessons of nature at the Minna Anthony Common Nature Center or new ideas from piles of newspapers, magazines and books which dominated their house and offices, learning was central to their lives.

That is why this scholarship fund exists. Scholarship was such an essential part of the lives of John and Catherine Johnson that they wanted others to enjoy the same blessing of education which sustained them.

JOHN GAUS

A scholarship from the Northern New York Community Foundation helped John Gaus attend Clarkson University. After a successful career in Boston, he sold his company and returned to the North Country. Today as President of Pragma Partners, John is working with Clarkson to commercialize new technologies and create companies that stimulate economic development in northern New York. Since his return he “maintains a close relationship with the Foundation and fully appreciates the contributions they make to the community.”

● A Scholarship Recipient Returns to the North Country

● MAKING A GIFT TO THE FOUNDATION

The Foundation serves many donors with a variety of charitable interests. Gifts are tax-deductible and may be made during the donor’s lifetime or by bequest in a will.

- Bequests - A donor designates that the Foundation is to receive a specific amount, a percent of the estate or a piece of property.
- Life Income Gifts - A donor makes a gift to the Foundation, in return for which he or she receives income for life.
- Gift Annuity - In exchange for a gift of cash or securities, a donor receives a guaranteed annual payment for life. When the annuity terminates a permanent endowment fund is established in the donor’s name. This fund may be used to support a local charitable organization.
- Outright Gifts - Gifts made during a donor’s lifetime can take the following forms:
 - Friends of the Foundation Fund - Allows a donor to make a contribution to the annual operation of the Foundation’s programs, or to make periodic contributions to the Foundation’s endowment in a fund named after the donor or his or her family, or in memory of a loved one.
 - Unrestricted Fund - To be used as the board deems necessary.
 - Designated Fund - Allows the donor to restrict payment to named charitable agencies or projects.
 - Advised Fund - Allows the donor to make tax-deductible gifts to the Foundation and to make suggestions to the Board of Directors for the philanthropic use of the fund.

“I am honored to have been awarded a Northern New York Community Foundation Scholarship. It is of enormous assistance in my being able to attend Cornell.”

SCHOLARSHIP

After graduating from Hamilton College in 1916, Leon A. Davis began a lifelong career as an educator. He was hired as principal of Lowville Academy in 1921. During his thirty-seven years as principal, Mr. Davis oversaw the consolidation of forty-five adjoining districts into a new centralized district, the addition of two new buildings and a vastly expanded and diversified curriculum. The scholarship in his honor is for graduates of Lowville Academy who are interested in careers in education.

The Mission of the Northern New York Community Foundation

The Northern New York Community Foundation raises, manages and administers an endowment and collection of funds for the benefit of the community, built and added to by gifts from individuals and organizations committed to meeting the changing needs of Northern New York.

Guided by a board of community leaders, the Foundation makes grants to support the work of non-profit organizations and provides scholarships to individuals in Jefferson and Lewis Counties. Donors who establish funds within the Foundation receive professional administration, significant tax savings, and the opportunity and satisfaction of benefiting our community now and in the future.

LEGACY AND MEMORIAL FUNDS

The Foundation's principal growth since 1929 has come from legacies. These sums of money have been made part of the Foundation's endowment or placed in trust for the Foundation. Each year the Foundation also receives memorial gifts in honor of a friend or relative.

Leaving a Legacy to the Community

Charitable bequests are an important way Americans make lasting contributions to their communities. If your will includes a bequest to the Foundation, we thank you for your thoughtfulness. We invite you to inform us if you have named the Foundation so that we may acknowledge you along with the other special people who have made future commitments. The confidentiality of all bequest provisions is maintained. If your completed will does not include a charitable bequest, you might consider adding one through a codicil.

Because a charitable bequest is fully deductible from your estate, significant tax savings may result. These savings enable many people to make a charitable gift while preserving most of the legacy they intended for their heirs. You don't need a large estate to make a bequest. It can be of any size and can take many forms.

Some individuals have established living trusts instead of having a will. Such trusts can include charitable provisions similar to other types of bequests.

It is important to provide the exact name of any charity you name as beneficiary so that your gift can be transmitted correctly. For the Foundation, the proper designation is the Northern New York Community Foundation, Inc.

Top 10 things you can do to Leave a Legacy

1. Prepare a will. Only half of those who pass away have one. Without a will, you lose control of the possessions you worked a lifetime to acquire.
2. Leave a gift in your will for the local charitable organizations that made a difference in your life. Less than 3% of all wills settled contain a charitable provision. Imagine the positive impact on our community if everyone made even a modest donation to a favorite local non-profit organization.
3. Leave a specific dollar amount or a percentage of the assets in your will to your favorite local charity. The provision can be a part of your will or added as a codicil to your existing will.
4. Name your favorite local charity as the beneficiary of your IRA or pension plan.
5. Consider using assets for your charitable gift. These can include (but aren't limited to) stocks, bonds, certificates of deposit, real estate, vehicles, art and jewelry. Such gifts may provide tax savings.
6. Name your favorite local charity as the beneficiary of an existing life insurance policy.
7. Purchase a new life insurance policy naming your favorite local charity as beneficiary.
8. Remember deceased loved ones with memorial gifts to local charities in your will.
9. Encourage family members and friends to leave gifts to local charities in their wills.
10. Ask your financial advisor to include charitable giving as part of their counsel to other clients.
