

Northern New York Community Foundation

Daniel Briggs Fund for Integrity

(A charitable fund of the Northern New York Community Foundation)

The mission and charitable purpose of the Daniel Briggs Fund for Integrity is to provide support for bullying prevention and character education programs, as well as professional development opportunities, to administrators, teachers, staff and employees of school districts in Jefferson, Lewis and St. Lawrence counties. Program examples meeting these criteria may focus on, but are not limited to, leadership, student responsibility, respect, and trust for the community.

Please provide the following information below and any supplemental materials as a completed grant application. To be considered for grant funding, please contact Max DelSignore, Assistant Director, at the Community Foundation at (315) 782-7110 or max@nnycf.org.

Grant Application Due by October 23, 2020

Name of Grant Contact: _____

Name of School District: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____ Phone #: _____

Tax Exempt Status/ID Number: _____

Please provide the following Grant Request information, as part of a written narrative:

- Amount of funding request for this program/project is _____.
- Project/program for which you are requesting funding
- Summarize the need/demand for this program/project
- List potential expenses or other funding sources associated with request
- Why should this program/project be funded?
- Describe activities, goals, community impact, and sustainability from the program/project